international youth festival

28 November - 04 December 2023

in Hamburg and Barmstedt

#invitation

Dear friends,

We are very thrilled to invite you to our international education and networking festival #hashtag2023 in Hamburg! #hashtag this year is a youth encounter organised by Biovilla from Portugal, In-terra from Georgia, MitOst Hamburg from Germany and Pomost from Poland.

#wecreators

Together with you, we will look at ways for us to become active ourselves - to take our environment and our future into our own hands and shape it - whether on a large or small scale.

We want to learn from one another, brainstorm new ideas in workshops, engage in discussions, and connect with local initiatives. We believe, that pooling our experiences helps us create something extraordinary together. That's why you are warmly invited to participate yourself!

There will also be plenty of time to explore Hamburg, to build connections and to network. And when the weekend arrives, get ready for an unforgettable party!

All of this and perhaps even more awaits you at #hashtag.

Curious?

So are we - about YOU!

#startandfinish

Tuesday, 28 November 2023, from 17:00
Monday, 04 December 2023, until 11:00

#ourplace

We will live and have parts of our programme in two different group accommodations:

From Tuesday to Friday we will stay in Hamburg at Jugendbildungsstätte YES! (Ahrenshooper Straße 5 22147 Hamburg);

From Friday to Sunday we will stay at Victor-Andersen-Haus Barmstedt (Jugendbildungsstätte – Kreisjugendring Pinneberg e.V., Düsterteiche 5 25355 Barmstedt).

#allofyou

Participants and team members of past projects of MitOst Hamburg e. V. and our international partner organisations, between 16 and 30 years of age. Please contact us if this does not apply to you but you would like to participate.

The language of the project will be English, thus you should be confident enough to speak and understand English in everyday situations and workshops (no academic level needed).

#co-create #programme

Our project is all about your ideas and your active participation. We believe in collective learning and collaboration. Thus, we encourage you to think how you can contribute to and influence our festival. We welcome all ideas and are excited about co-creating these days together. If you're still unsure about your ideas, don't hesitate to reach out to us, and together we can spark inspiration!

#weekendonly

If you can't join us for the entire project, we'd love to welcome you from Friday, December 1st, to Sunday, December 3rd. Please note that the number of available spots is limited.

Meeting point for a joint journey is the DB Reisezentrum at Hamburg Hbf on 01.12.2023 at 16:20 (train departure: 16:49).

The joint return journey ends on Sunday between 14:00 and 15:00 at the main station in Hamburg.

#moneymoneymoney

#hashtag is funded by Erasmus+.

Your own contribution is 20,- euros for food, accommodation and programme. If you attend the entire programme, you can get a reimbursement of up to 210,- euros for your travel expenses (by bus/train) to Hamburg. However, if you'll only be at #hashtag for the weekend, you'll need to cover your own ticket costs, as the funding we receive for #hashtag is bound to full-time participation.
